Dealer Comments
2012 Ram 1500 rolls in with the kind of simple, honest utility that makes weekends easier. The truck has tinted windows for privacy, a security system for peace of mind, and a tire pressure monitor that helps avoid surprises. Dual exhaust tips give it a little extra presence on the road without being flashy, and airbags are in place for safety. Bring it by and take a short test drive to see how the 1500 fits your routine.
