Dealer Comments

Meet the 2011 Honda Accord Sdn, a tidy used sedan that still knows how to make the commute comfortable. Heated seats warm you up on chilly mornings, bluetooth keeps your playlists and calls hands-free, and cruise control settles in for whatever highway miles you have planned. The tire pressure monitor takes one small worry off your list, and satellite radio gives you something new for the long drives. This Accord Sdn is sensible, pleasant, and ready to go.
